1 - Pont de Chabran - 200 m

Start the trail along the wide gravel track.

2 - Les Bâties - 226 m

At the following junction turn right onto the path.

3 - Balayer - 330 m

Heads towards Combe du Frêne.

4 - Combe du Frêne - 300 m

Turn left here.

5 - Combe du Loup

Head down an exciting section at this point.

6 - Combe Oternaud - 255 m

Head towards Bois de Sizay.

7 - Bois de Sizay - 270 m

Cross the road onto the path opposite going uphill; strenuous but thrilling at the same time.

8 - Combe de Sizay

9 - Le Nordmann

10 - Gros Chêne - 345 m

Turn right.

11 - Champ Guinot - 345 m

Head opposite up a pretty tough and technical section.

12 - Le Laca
