1 - 0 km

Starting from Tain l'Hermitage, the trail climbs up through the Hermitage hillsides giving you an exceptional view over both Valleys of the rivers Rhône and Isère. It then continues along the road on the plateau overlooking the 'défilé de Saint Vallier' a succession of curves in the majestic Rhône river.

2 - 4.6 km

Between dells, glens and gentle hills, the trail heads slowly towards the village of Larnage.

3 - 13.5 km

Along the way you will go up and down the hills of Drôme to the Roches qui Dansent (dancing rocks).

4 - 22.1 km

An easy journey towards Chantemerle les Blés, with its Roman church offering a remarkably decorative display, before coming to the first hilly areas on the way to Veaunes where you can admire the plains of Herbasse.

5 - 30.5 km

After the village of Chanos Curson a route heads south downhill between vineyards and orchards before reaching the banks of the river Isère.

6 - 37.3 km

From Châteauneuf sur Isère, the cycling track Vallée de l'Isère (V63) will take you to the edge of the river then along to Pont de l'Isère.

7 - 44.9 km

The route follows the river Rhône as far as Tain l'Hermitage (leading to the ViaRhôna).
